6,000 SLAIN AND HUNDREDS ARE WOUNDED

LA PAZ, Bolivia, May 25. (AP)—Three entire divisions of Paraguayan troops were reported in disorderly retreat through the jungles of the Gran Chaco Friday with Bolivian forces in hot pursuit.

The enemy divisions fled, said army dispatches from Canada. Strongest after a surprise Bolivian counter-attack in which 6,000 Paraguayans were slain and twice that number wounded.

The Eighth Paraguayan Division was described as completely surrounded as a result of the flight of the Seventh division, which had sought to make contact with it.

The reports from the front were hailed with rejoicing in La Paz. The president said it was an occasion for "national jubilee."

It was reported the Paraguayans broke ranks after they had advanced tentatively only to be met by Bolivian units which, quickly reinforced, turned the forward movement into a rout.

Despite reports of Bolivian victories, the Paraguayan minister of defense said Paraguay's troops had defeated the Bolivian attack at Canaditza Strongest.

He said Paraguay's losses were "normal," Bolivia's "heavy."

Boys Schooled In Culling of Poultry

(Special to The Herald)

SAN BENITO, May 25.—Poultry culling demonstrations held the attention of Boys 4-H Clubs recently organized in Cameron county by Henry Alsmeyer, farm agent.

Alsmeyer met first with the Santa Rosa club Tuesday and then in rapid succession with the Ranger-view Club Wednesday morning, Stuart Place Thursday morning and Wilson Tract Friday.

He demonstrated proper method of culling non-layers from flocks and in some instances the proper method of building chicken houses in this climate to provide plenty of ventilation in the hot summer months.

In the next 15 years, the gold supply of South Africa, which has furnished more than half of the world's output, is expected to become exhausted.

TAKEN BEFORE DEATH

Inseparable in their wild career of murder and banditry, Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker posed for this picture before the law had chased them to their last hideout.

The Wrong Matthew

CHICAGO. — Judge Matthew Hartigan said to Witness Harry Merkin:

"Raise your right hand and be sworn."

"I cannot swear," pleaded Merkin. "Matthew forbids it."

"You shouldn't call the court by his first name," admonished the clerk.

"I wasn't talking about the judge, I was talking about Matthew in the Bible, who says you mustn't swear," Merkin expostulated.

Whereupon he held up his right hand and "solemnly affirmed" that he would tell the truth about a window breaking.

HOT OIL MOB IS BEATEN IN COURT TRIAL

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—A counter smash against "hot" oil production in eastern Texas was in the making Friday. Plans were mounded at the Interior Department to push crack investigators into the area.

The drive was said to have been made possible by a decision Tuesday of the fifth circuit court of appeals in New Orleans. It upheld the constitutionality of regulation of the oil industry under the Recovery Act and dismissed injunctions that had called a halt on federal inquiries in the vast east Texas district.

non-observance of code hours and wage schedules, and illegal production of oil are prominent among the violations charged.

Politicians Play Part

Another 142 investigations charged with finding abuses under PWA have investigated 2,515 cases and reported adversely in 737. Eighty-eight have been dropped into the hands of United States attorneys and indictments were returned in 13, as shown by figures recently given a congressional committee by Glavis.

Wage rebates, collusive bidding and insistence by politicians on part of workers' pay for political use are among the accusations in the 13 indictments.

Glavis has 88 men attempting to check any corruption under the Interior department. They have found relatively few criminal cases but have run across what the term instances of fraudulent acquisitions of land titles and unlawful fencing of public lands.

Catch Big Haul

(Special to The Herald)

SAN BENITO, May 25.—Glenn Morris, Taft Taylor and James D. Ward started a stampede of fishermen towards the coast when they brought back nearly a thousand pounds of kingfish and jackfish after six hours of fishing at Port Isabel. Many of the fish weighed from 15 to 20 pounds.

Agents Keep Watch

Some officials estimated illegal oil production in the district leaped to 80,000 barrels daily after the injunctions went into effect.

The agents to be sent into the area are part of 372 Sec. 106s sent through the country to keep an eye out for oil code violations in any irregularities under Public Works or Interior department administration.

Controlled by the Louis R. Glavis, chief investigator under Ickes, 142 picked men are specializing on oil. They operate out of 19 regional offices.

Their activities have brought many indictments for oil code violations. Improper posting of prices, Creepy!

Cotton Farmers To Provide Figures

(Special to The Herald)

SAN BENITO, May 25.—Detailed instructions have not been received on how the Bankhead bill will be carried out but it is certain that farmers will be called on to provide figures on their cotton production for the five years, 1928 to 1932, and growers can facilitate matters by getting this information together now, said Henry Alsmeyer, county agent.

Those who signed cotton reduction contracts have this information in hand. Under the Bankhead bill every producer will be limited to a certain production based on prior crops and excess sales will be subject to a heavy tax.
